

October 23, 1958

Dr. R. Race
Blood Group Research Unit
Lister Institute
Chelsea Bridge Road
London, S.W.1, England

Dear Rob:

Thanks so much for your good letter of October 16th. I very much appreciate your advice with respect to people working in blood groups and will keep it in mind for the development of our program. I do not contemplate any immediate action.

We have decided to move out to Stanford in February and hope that you may find this more accessible, during your travels, than Madison has been in the past.

With all the best.